Subject: Lincoln cent

Writer # 1: Brandt, F.J.

Recipient: Chapman, Henry
(Coin Dealer, Phila., PA)

Moore, J. Hampton
[Philadelphia, PA]

1930-1932

J. HAMPTON MOORE
WIDENER BUILDING
PHILADELPHIA

January 11, 1930.

Mr. F. J. Brandt
Box 621 Federal Bldg.
Philadelphia

Dear Sir:

Mr. Moore has your memorandum about the Lincoln penny, and directs me to say he is unable to make you any recommendation as to its disposal except that some collector might be able to advise you.

Very truly yours,

Ethel B. Graef

Secretary

E

Dear Chapman: I am ready to dispose of the most wonderfull coin now in existance.

You can see this at my h ouse and I will be home Monday all day May I6th., I932.

FOR SALE

I CENT

PRICE $5000.00

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

ISSUE LINCOLN.

BOTH SIDES ALIKE.

HEADS.

THE MOST WONDERFULL COIN EVER TAKEN FROM THE CIRCULATION.

CERTAIN PEOPLE SAID I NEVER WOULD BE ABLE TO HOLD A CENT, HENCE MY DESIRE TO SELL, YOU SEE I DONT WANT TO MAKE A LIAR OUT OF THEM.